The Alta Ham Fine Arts Building, now nearing completion on the UNLV campus, is the new home for the department of music. This $5 million facility has band/orchestra and jazz/percussion ensemble rehearsal rooms, electronic and recording studios, 20 practice rooms, 10 studio offices, two piano studio repertory rooms, an organ studio, and a student instrument locker room. Another piano studio and music classrooms are located next to the fine arts building in Archie Grant Hall.

Virko Baley
Music Director and Conductor

"...virtuosity, color, density, tension..."
 The Boston Globe

Born 1938 in the Ukraine, Virko Baley began his piano studies in Germany at the age of seven under Roman Sawycky. When his family settled in the United States in 1949, he continued his education at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts (now California Institute of the Arts) where he received both Bachelor and Master of Music degrees. His principal teacher, Earl C. Voorhies, described him as "the most gifted and highly disciplined musician I have ever known." Baley also studied with renowned tutors Rosina Lhevinne and Karl Ulrich Schnabel.

Virko Baley is founder and director of the Las Vegas Chamber Players, Nevada's only serious music group to earn international attention. He has shaped the ensemble's Annual Contemporary Music Festival into an event described by the San Francisco Chronicle as "exceptional at every turn, not only in the West, but internationally." Currently he is Music Director of the new Las Vegas Symphony Orchestra.

A composer and author, he is writing a book on the music of the Soviet Ukraine and another for the University of California Press entitled "Contemporary Piano." Baley's Partita for Trombone, Piano and Tape, has been performed extensively by celebrated trombonist Miles Anderson (with whom he recorded an album of French music for Crystal Records), and in 1978 the Nevada State Council on the Arts commissioned him to compose three works, including one for the contemporary ensemble SONOR.
